March Top Tips

With two five-card suits: open with the higher ranking suit, respond in the higher ranking suit, and overcall in the higher ranking suit. Do not worry about which is the stronger suit.

You hold: S. x H. J10xxx D. AKQxx C. Kx

Open 1H, not 1D. Respond 1H to an opening 1C bid and overcall 1H if the opening bid to your right is 1C.

If you and partner lead the ace from AKx(x) against suit contracts be advised: (1) The lead is a trick one convention only. (2) After trick one, the king is led. (3) If the suit has been supported, or if you are leading a suit you have supported, the king is led. Leading the ace in a supported suit denies the king. (4) If the opponents wind up at the five or six level, the king is led. The lead of an ace at these levels denies the king. (5) From AK doubleton, everything is reversed.

When fortunate enough to have a powerful trump suit and being forced to ruff, tend not to ruff with your lowest trump. That tiny trump might be your only way to get to dummy.

Bridge Humor

A lady playing in her first duplicate hears an opponent say: "Alert". She says: "I am alert!"

Interesting Tidbits

Nancy Fellman has one daughter studying for the bar exam and another daughter in medical school.

Jane Kirby's daughter is getting married on March 21.

Mark Bumgardner's daughter won the Division III TAPPS State Soccer Tournament February 21st!

Please let the Academy Team know about the special events in your life so that we may share the news with all of our friends at the Academy.

Special Events

(See calendar for dates and times)

Pot Luck Dinners The Academy provides the meat & drinks. You bring a side dish of a vegetable, salad or dessert. Loyce Rubin has been out doing herself with tender brisket, mouth-watering meatloaf, and barbeque chicken. We have also found out that not only do BAND players know how to play bridge, but they also know how to cook!

Just to name a few side dishes: Susan Keyes' "Mashed Potatoes and Gravy," Marilyn Bick's "Broccoli Slaw," Karen Ferguson's "Corn Pudding," and Delilah Perkinson's "Red Beans and Rice."

Salad Mixers The Academy provides the lettuce and salad dressing. You bring one cup of salad ingredient. I didn't realize there were so many types of lettuce. Can't wait to see this week's.

Donna Compton's devilled eggs are a huge hit at the Salad Mixers. But don't tell her family that she cooks. It's her best kept secret!

Duplicate Bridge Etiquette

MANNERS ARE IMPORTANT Greet your opponents at the beginning of the round and smile! At the end of the round, they are still your friends...

SILENCE IS GOLDEN Conversation stops when you remove your hand from the board.

THINK BEFORE YOU TOUCH Once you have decided on a bid in your mind, then use your hand to choose the bid from the box.

Don't let your fingers do your thinking!

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE Once the auction is complete, make your opening lead and table the dummy before you write the contract in your private score.

Remember to lead face down!

WHAT HAPPENS IN THE CURRENT ROUND...STAYS IN THE CURRENT ROUND Once the round is finished, you may then discuss hands from the current round. Refrain from discussion between hands. Hands from previous rounds should never be discussed in front of the new opponents.

YOUR MOTHER'S RULE If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all!

HAVE FUN! At the end of the day, we are all here to have a good time. Enjoy...
