Spring Workshops with Susan Tuesdays 10am-12pm

Join Susan for an exciting new group of workshops specially designed for intermediate and advancing players. Practice what you know and learn some new concepts to bring your spring into focus!

WS #1 Maximal Doubles and Help Suit Game Tries

We are looking for game. Should we try for it or not? What about that worrisome side suit? In this workshop explore the concepts of Maximal Doubles and Help Suit Game Tries. Having these tools in your bidding tool box will allow you and partner to go for game when it's likely to be there and to try and steer clear when it's not. March 20th

1♠ 2♥ 2♣ 3♥

How do you invite and how do you compete?

WS #2 We Don't Play Reverses!

I know just hearing the word "reverse" makes your partner cringe but you can't bid without coming to peace with reverses. It's the name that gives it such a bad reputation. Susan will walk you through the steps to recognizing when you should reverse and when your partner has reversed. March 27th

1♦ 1♥

What's a reverse and what's not a reverse?

WS #3 Practice your Doubles

Doubles included on the dance card are negative doubles, takeout doubles, maximal doubles, balancing doubles, responsive doubles, support doubles and any other doubles we can include in the practice bidding sheets! April 10th

WS #4 Lebensohl over Reverses (Reverses Revisited!)

Your partner just reversed! Now what? What is game forcing? What is sign off? Wow! You mean I get to add a relay to my convention card. How fabulous! Join Susan as she relays the morning away with Lebensohl over Reverses. And no! You don't have to be able to spell it to play it! April 17th

What's to play and what's game forcing?

WS #5 Practice your Overcalls ~ Including Cuebids!

Join Susan for a morning of bidding hands includes one and two level overcalls, overcall cuebid responses, major Michaels cuebids, minor Michaels cuebids, preemptive overcalls and any other overcalls we find in our data base! April 24th
